Miriam L. Foreman

Dean of Girls

THESE WE

The following admirable traits of character are represented in the life of

Miriam L. Foreman

- α person with high moral standards
- α dean with sincere interest in her "girls"
- α worker of long and untiring service
- α counselor who inspires confidence
- α associate who commands respect
- α teacher with unfailing patience
- α leader with knowledge and keen foresight
- α sincere friend to all

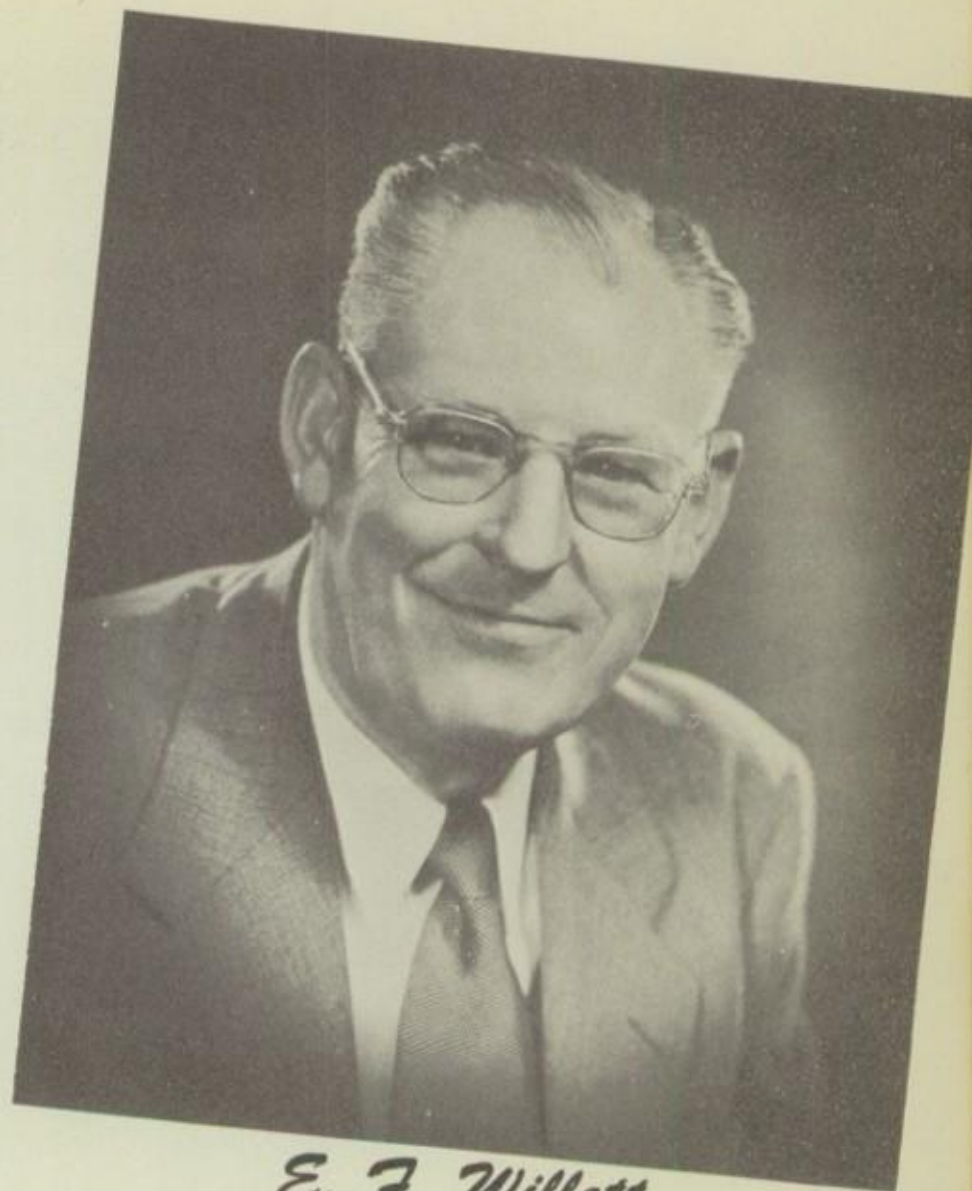

At home, at school, or in the field of service, the youth whom she has inspired are bearing the banner of high ideals. Miss Foreman, because you have done so much for us, we hold it a privilege to honor you in this

Treasurer of the Conference

To Elder G. E. Hutches, Chairman of our School Board and also of the Finance Committee, and to Elder E. F. Willett, Treasurer of the Michigan Conference, we wish to speak sincere words of appreciation.

During the past seven years these men have ably directed the affairs of Adelpian Academy and have carried heavy financial burdens in endeavoring to make every penny stretch as far as possible in order to provide for us the many beautiful, modern, and convenient buildings which we enjoy today. Under their capable administration the following major buildings have been erected. A mill building where over eighty young people are employed; the heating plant which also houses a modern laundry, employing thirty girls, print shop and mechanics classroom; East Hall and West Hall boys' and girls' dormitories respectively, which are perhaps the most ideal student homes to be found on the campus of any school. New lawns, sidewalks, drives, and equipment for many of the departments have added to the pleasure and enjoyment of attending school at Adelpian Academy.

The entire school family and staff say to these men a hearty "thank you" in this

A Message

from

Our Principal

Another school year has closed. Someone has said success is a journey, not a destination. Certainly every student at Adelphian Academy has had a very happy journey. Success comes to those who plan their journey and have had a full life as they travel. Sometimes we travel so far and so fast in our journey that the destination is the thing when the journey should be the real thing.

Honor to our parents who have made it possible for us to take this journey. Loving parents, in order to have their boy or girl achieve their purpose have struggled, toiled, planned, and sacrificed. They remained at home and wore shabby clothes that their children might go places all "dressed up" and have the same privileges and enjoyment as others on this journey. Many of their lives were stripped of even occasional enjoyments in order that their sons and daughters might be able to study music, art, or take some other "extra" while on this journey. Every student pays respect to his parents for the help they have given them in this journey of success.

I appeal to the young people who have a choice to make as they begin this journey so important in life. Adelphian Academy is the only place for the youth of Eastern Michigan to choose to travel on the road of success.

Why not join the large group of youth at Adelphian, and learn that success can be a happy journey not a destination. Start today.

V.E. Garber

Charline Manier

Charline Manier came to Adelphian Academy in September of 1950 in her sophomore year. She soon became a favorite among the girls on the third floor of Sharon Hall. Her jolly spirit and ability to tell "bedtime stories" soon made her room a popular gathering place. She was ever thoughtful of others and willing to go out of her way to be kind to those in need.

Although she lost her life in an accident at Camp Au Sable, on October 5, she will not be forgotten by her many friends in school and her many loved ones and acquaintances in her home town of Cassopolis, Michigan.

Week

Elder John Hancock, Union M. V. Secretary, conducted the Fall Week of Prayer. Much of his time was spent in counseling students personally, and in meeting with special prayer groups organized by students in the dormitories.

As a fitting climax to the special week, the students had an opportunity to "confess their faith" before the group. The last Sabbath of the week found 80 students participating in home visitation day . . . and from this beginning many Bible studies have been given, and some persons are attending our church.

Opening Handshake

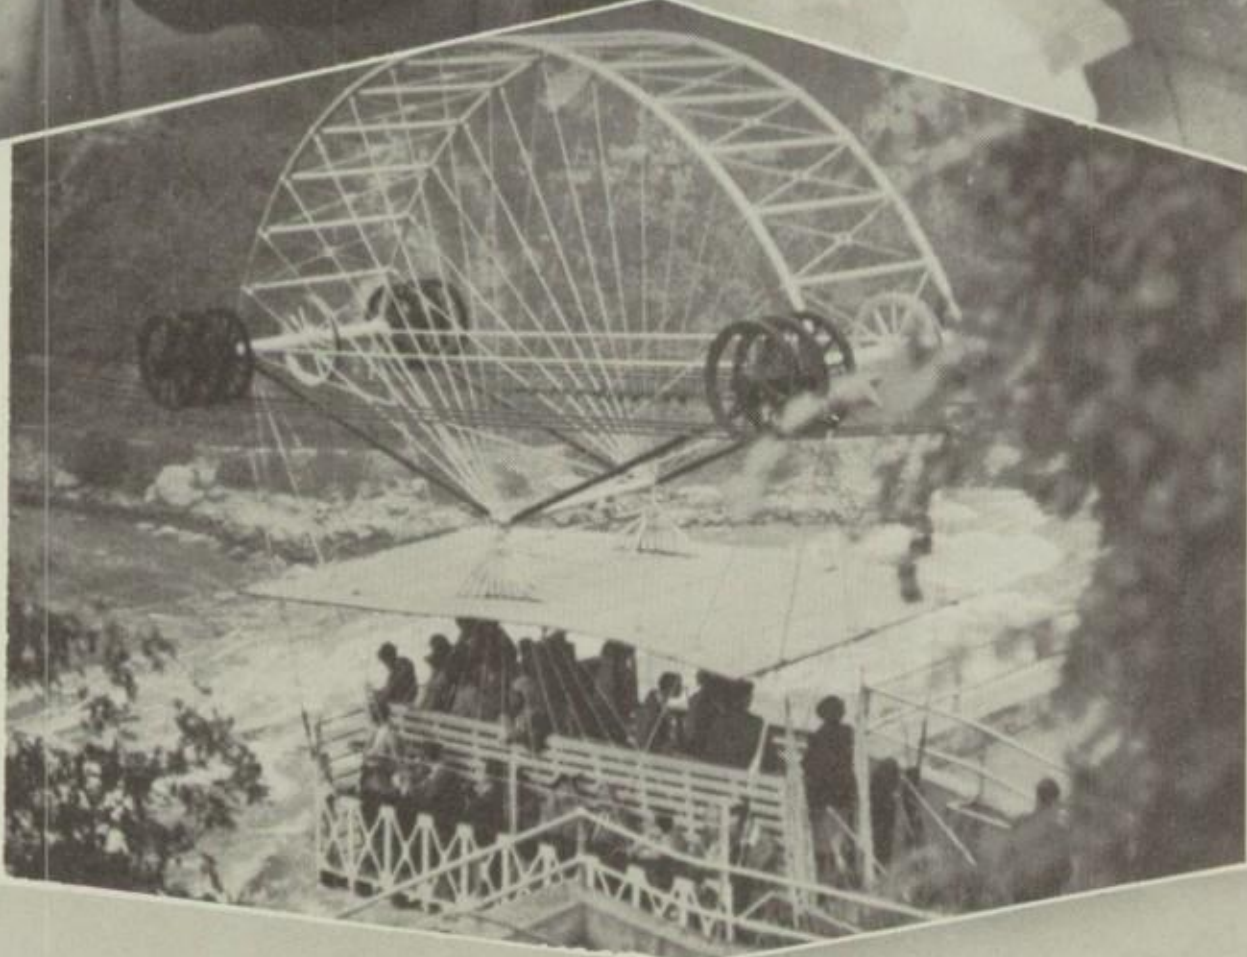

Can you remember way back to the night of September 8? Hand shakes till your arm was weak, marching until your legs were sore, and looking until your eyes hurt at all the new tags of the new students. We had an impromptu amateur hour too, that month, which helped us all get better acquainted with the 253 others who enrolled at Adelpian this year.

The Board and Faculty enjoy a banquet in the girls' club room.

"Frontier Days" aboard an old-time U. P. train was the special attraction at the annual mid-semester social event of the year. Good food, contests, and pictures in "authentic costumes" before the old "wood-burner" provided a full evening of fun.

Mr. and Mrs. B. L. Jackson were the artists for a lyceum program on January 5. Now, more than ever before, we can appreciate Mr. Jackson's musical talent and skill as a marimbist.

Elder T. E. Lucas of the General Conference M. V. Department with Elders Beavon and Hancock, was the guest speaker in union worship January 16. Elder Lucas held us spellbound with stories of his recent trip to Africa and Northern European countries following the Paris Youth Congress.

Emmanuel Missionary College Band in Concert.

Red Cross

On February 12 the Oakland County Red Cross Bloodmobile set up a canteen in the Academy recreation room.

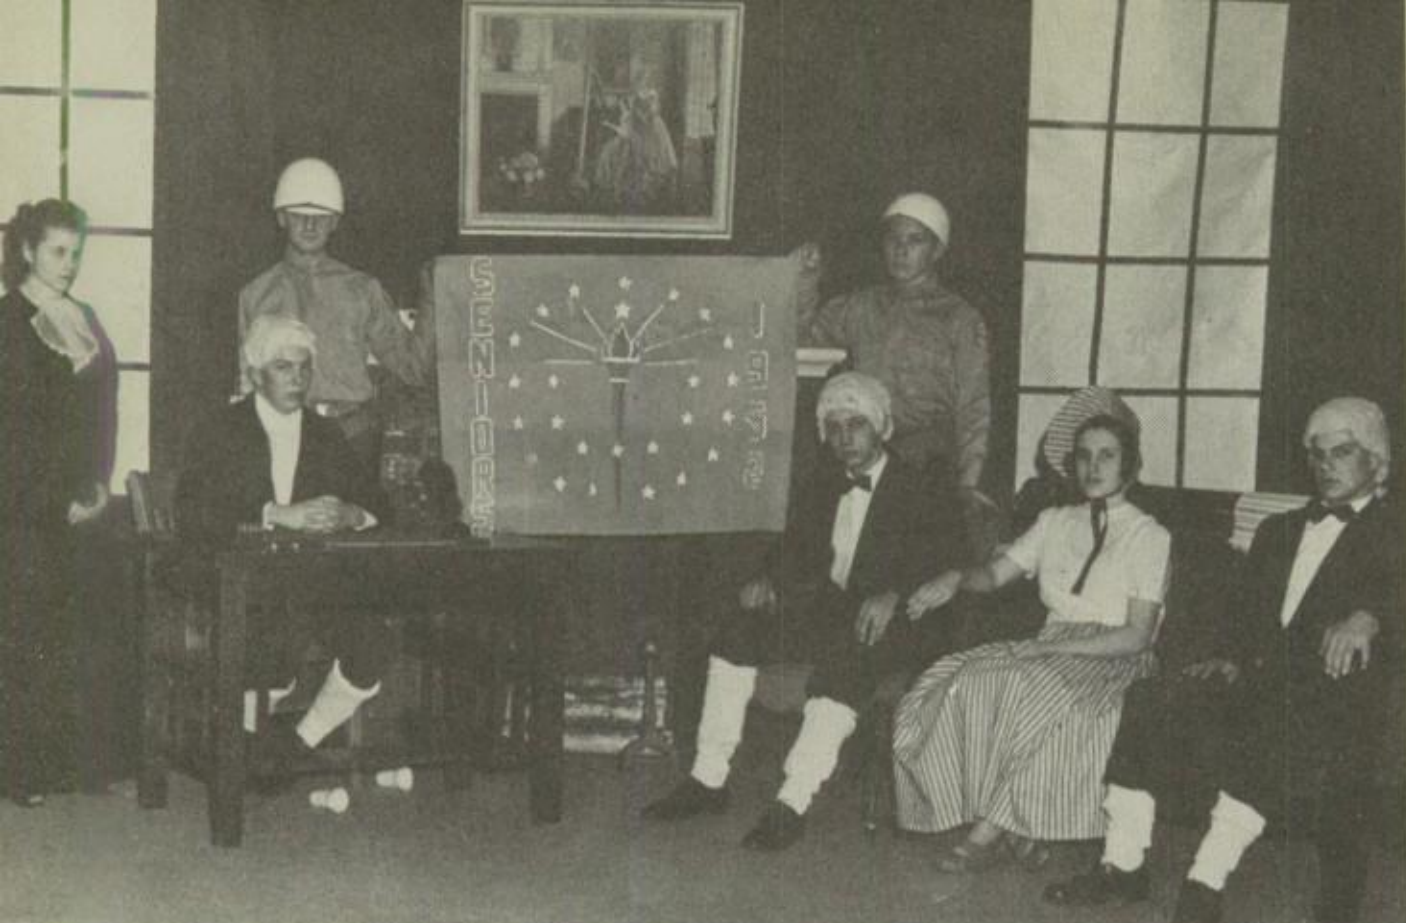

The College Band, under the direction of Paul Hamel presented a program to a full house in the Holly High School gymnasium on February 2.

Blood Donors

Staff and mill workers cooperated with the Village of Holly in the work and donations. The Red Cross reported an excellent response to this call for blood.

Seniors Coming Out

The Senior Class was presented on February 17 in a patriotic skit. The officers above are Rheeta Kelly, Vice President; Paul Keller, President; James Edmister, Treasurer; Mary Lou Cole, Secretary; Bob Crumb, Pastor; Ronald Hughes and Jim Twomley, Sgt.-at-arms.

The entire class enjoys cherry tarts and punch as a climax to their presentation.

General Motors Reviews of Science program was a feature attraction of the S. A. meeting on February 27. A glob of flexible rubber has just been "exploded" from a bottle in which it was "manufactured." Motors that operate by sunshine and candle power, new methods in glass making, Freon demonstrations, and climaxing the program a blast from a "little jet engine" marked this the best chapel of the year.

Blood Typing

Calling all students, mill, and staff employees! Everyone come and get your blood typed and you'll get your "dog tag" to wear. The Oakland County Civil Defense Unit had a full day "typing" the folks on the campus February 20.

The "Shi" Campaign Winners finally found the ideal Sunday for their toboggan party at Tyrone Hills, and feed in the Home Ec rooms. From reports via the grapevine route, the food was "super" and no broken bones resulted from the slides.

Student Fun

Judging from this candid shot on a Saturday night, some folks were having a very gay time. See how long you can look at this picture without laughing!

F a c u l t y

For a change the faculty enjoyed their monthly supper and social hour in the Home Ec rooms. Mercedes Habenicht, recently returned from South America, was our guest. She showed some beautiful slides of our work and other places of interest in that country.

"Rec" Fun

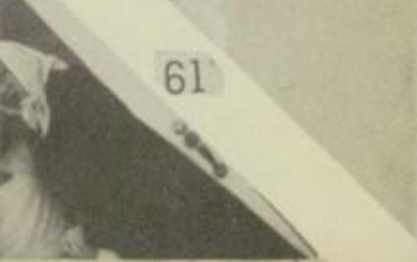

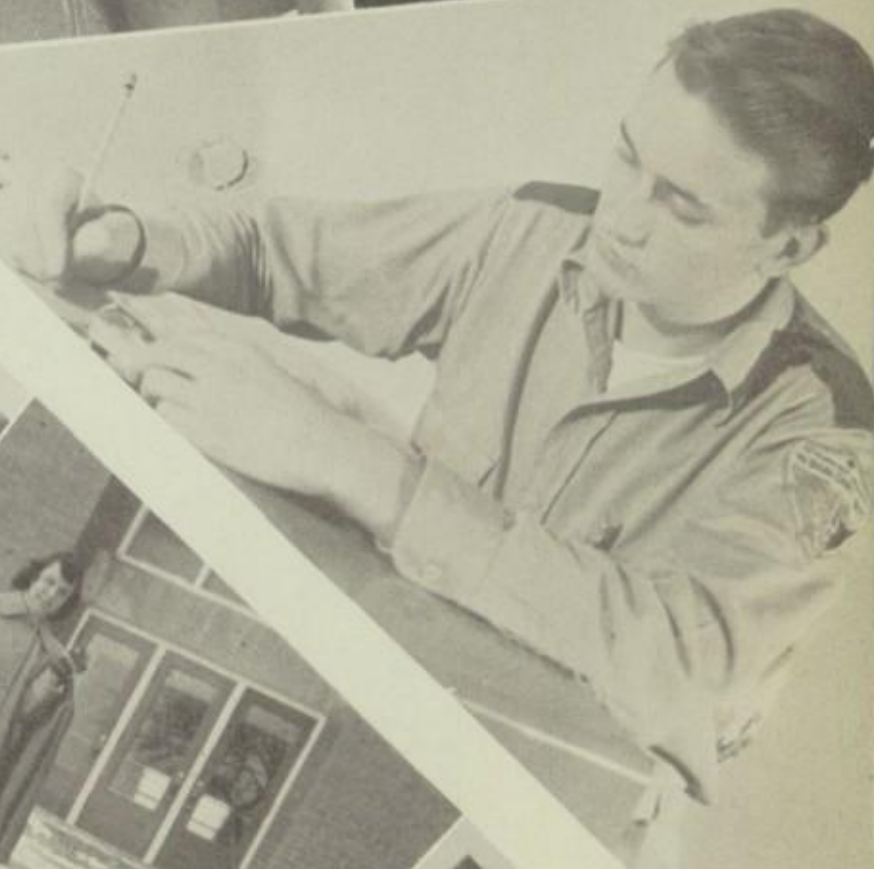

A lively "German Band" plays for marching on Saturday nights.

Three times a day the dining room is a place of busy activity as crowds of young people satisfy hearty appetites with delicious, nutritious, wholesome food.

Jail Band

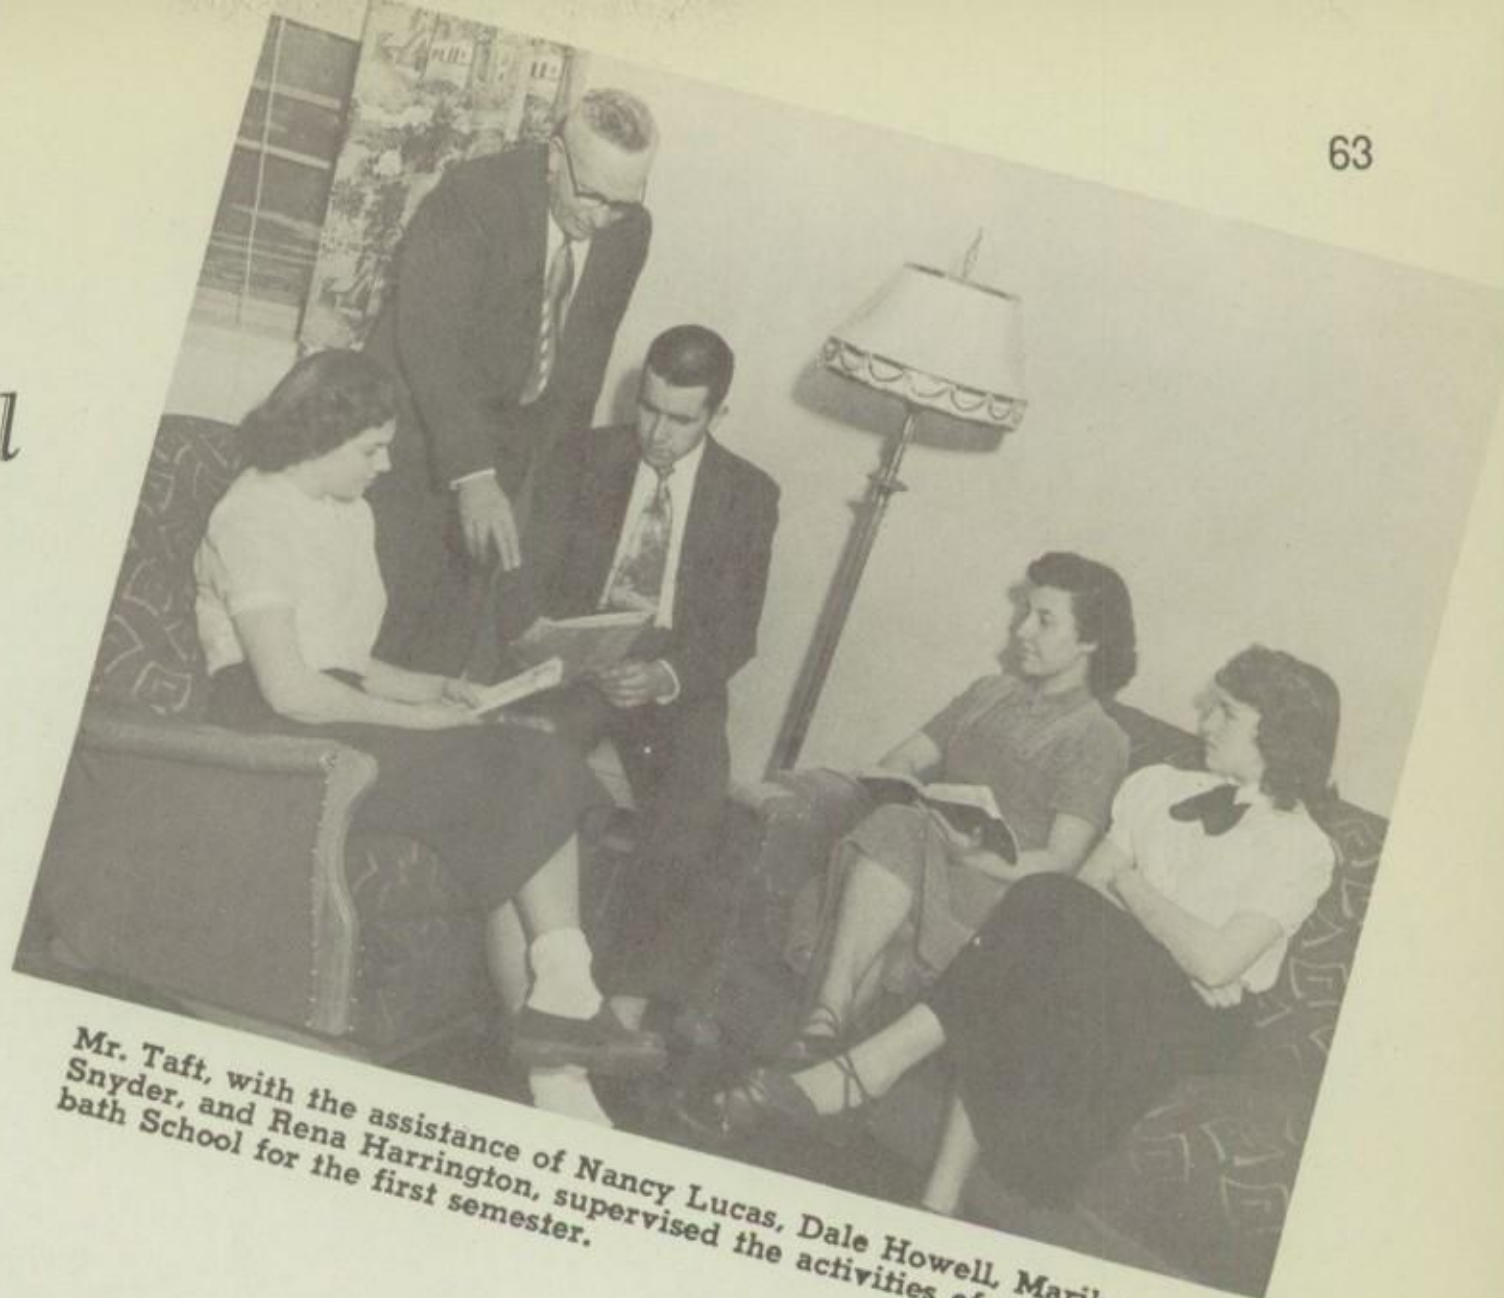

Smiling behind the bars. The members of the jail band even take a marimba to jail with them. Those in charge of this large county jail are happy to welcome the students of Adelphian who always have a special program to present each week to the men and women in this institution.

Club

Sabbath School

Mr. Taft, with the assistance of Nancy Lucas, Dale Howell, Marilyn Snyder, and Rena Harrington, supervised the activities of the Sabbath School for the first semester.

Officers

Jack Kinne and Dave Kuebler share honors as presidents of Alpha Delta Nu this year. Other officers are Kenneth Burt, Bob Kearney, Ed Krick, Bob Dotson, Willy Wright, Bob Crumb, Jim McGaddye, Dick Ashton, Paul Keller, Jim Edmister and Jim Twomley.

Candid Camera Shots

Treed—almost. Just a few girls ??? giving forth with a little lun and leg exercise.

Personal devotions and worship are an important part of our daily program. The friendly, pleasant association of girls praying together, working together, and playing together, does much to help us feel like one big family.

This "select group" can be seen most any morning during the 9:21 study hour, in the back of the chapel, quiet as mice, doing of all things—geometry! Don't they look studious? They really are.

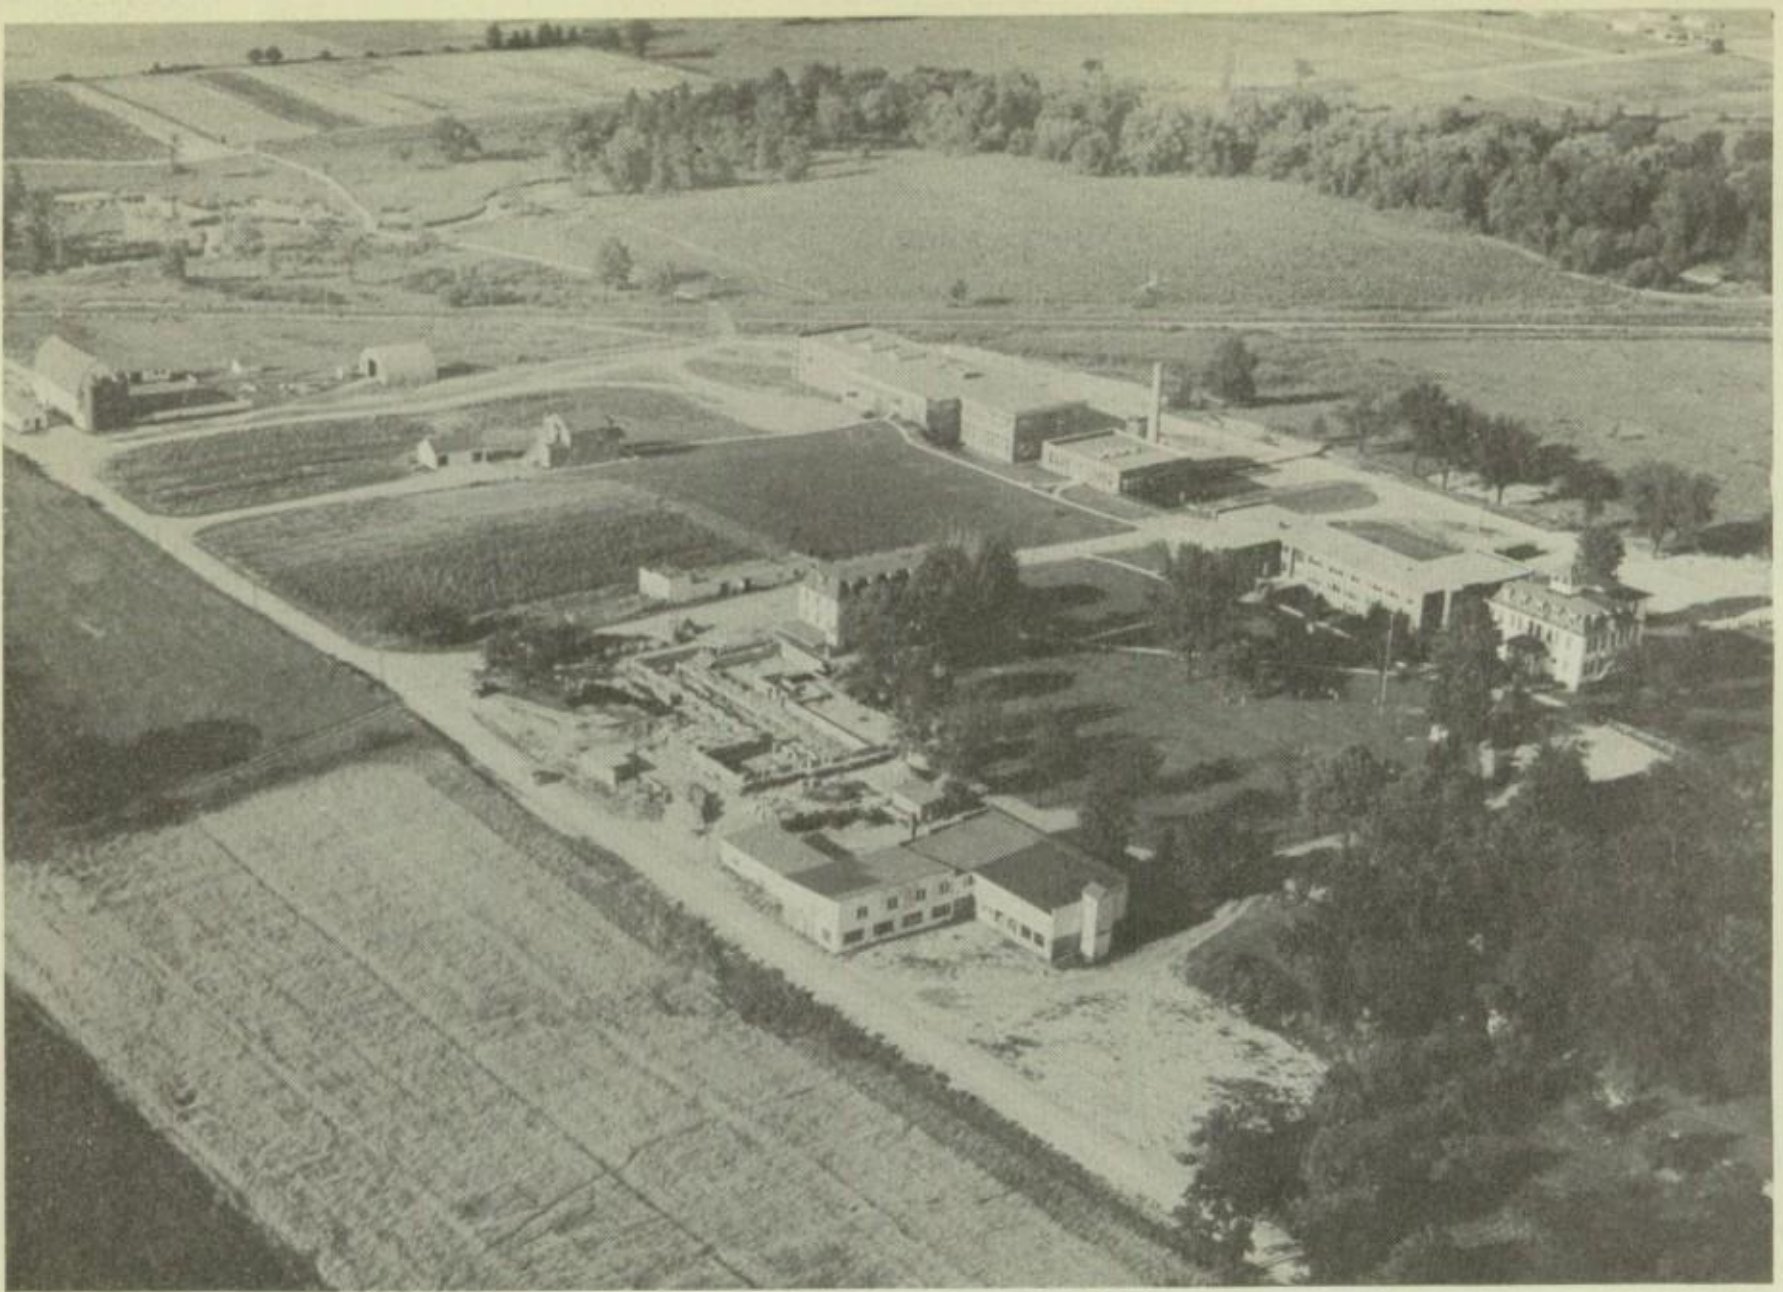

No one ever gets enough mail — except Mr. Wohlers. When his office is empty about 9:30 on week days, we know he has gone for the mail. On Saturday nights, all eyes on the campus are turned toward his office window for signs that he is busy distributing those long-looked-for letters from home. Rain or shine, snow or flood, the mail somehow does arrive via "Uncle Harry" and his trusty Ford.

Candid

Camera Shots

Oh to see ourselves as others see us! At least most of the folks caught by the camera in chapel are singing.

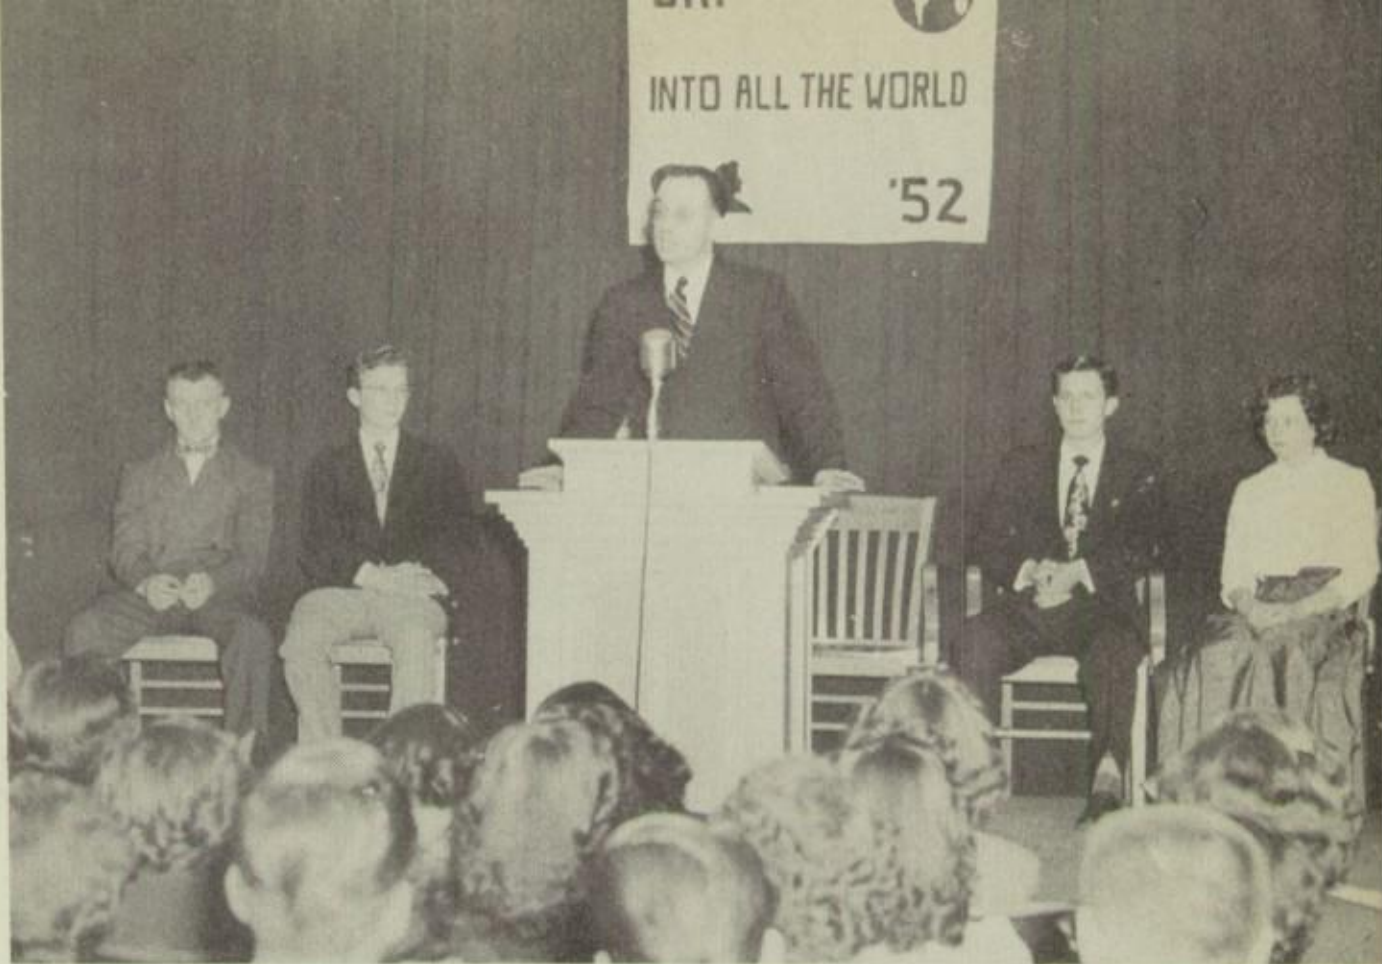

Approaching from the Southwest, one gets a complete view of the main quadrangle, showing the new girls' dormitory in the process of construction.

Flying low toward the campus from the Northwest, one sees the entire campus, including the farm buildings and the edges of the village of Holly in the distance.

Junior Presentation

Elder R. K. Krick, of Lansing, presented the challenge to the Junior Class at a Friday evening vesper hour on March 21. His address brought inspiration to the entire student body as he spoke to them on the class Aim, "Into All The World."

Girls' Trio

Marva Shugars, Beverly Rhodes, Mary L. Cole, with capable assistance from Joan Kowalski provide much special music for our enjoyment.

M. V.'s

Mrs. Baldwin, sponsor, with Bruce Garrett, Claudette Hampton, Paul Keller, Duane Potter, Lois Bellore, Hubert Moog, Sarah May Redfield, Margaret Huffaker, and Jackie Castle, put a lot of enthusiasm into directing the activities of the M. V. society for the year.

The Adelpian Mill, largest of its kind in the country, is the means of furnishing employment to 80 boys and girls, as well as to a large crew of adult help.

The Mill

Mr. B. L. Jackson is the enthusiastic play for chapel, marching in the "Rec" ing free times in the boys' dormitory one playing in a miniature "German Band."

The Seminar

This is a partial group of the students who are active members and leaders of the Seminar. R. W. Pratt is here expounding to Darlene West, Mary Lou Cole, Paul Keller, Duane Potter, Dick Bagg, Margaret Huffaker, and Judy Hill. The many services held in the churches in our districts attest to the faithful work done by this group.

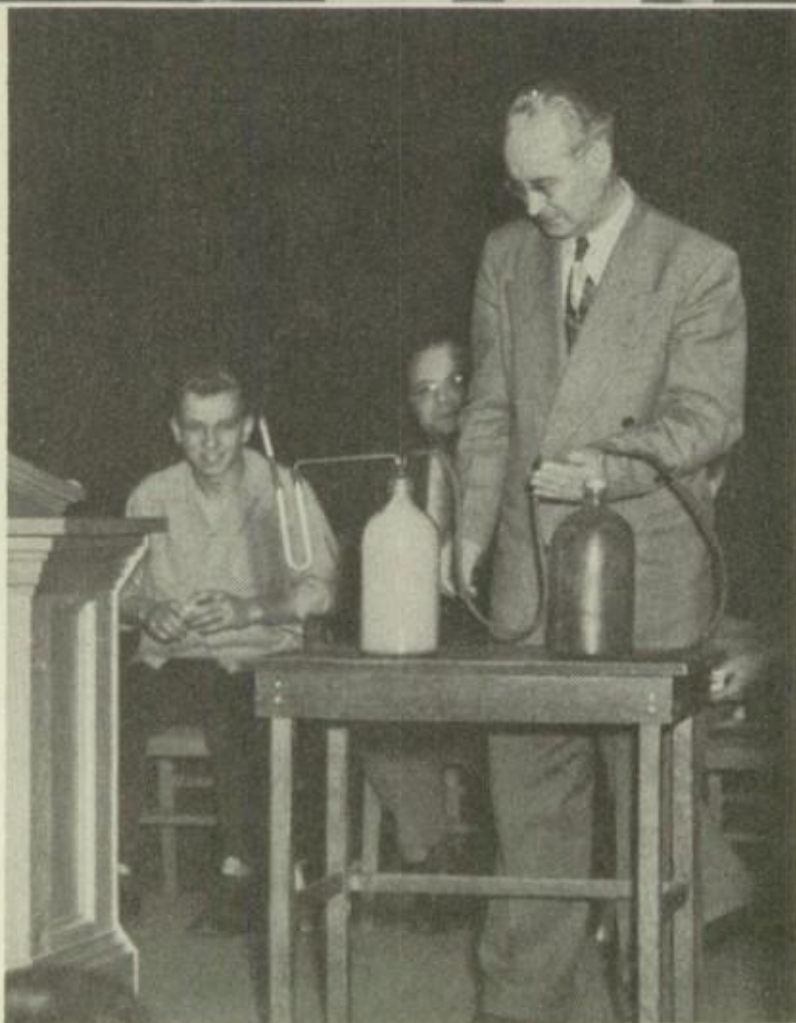

director of our Band. This group of students room, and on Saturday night programs. Durcan often hear a special group of the fellows

The Band

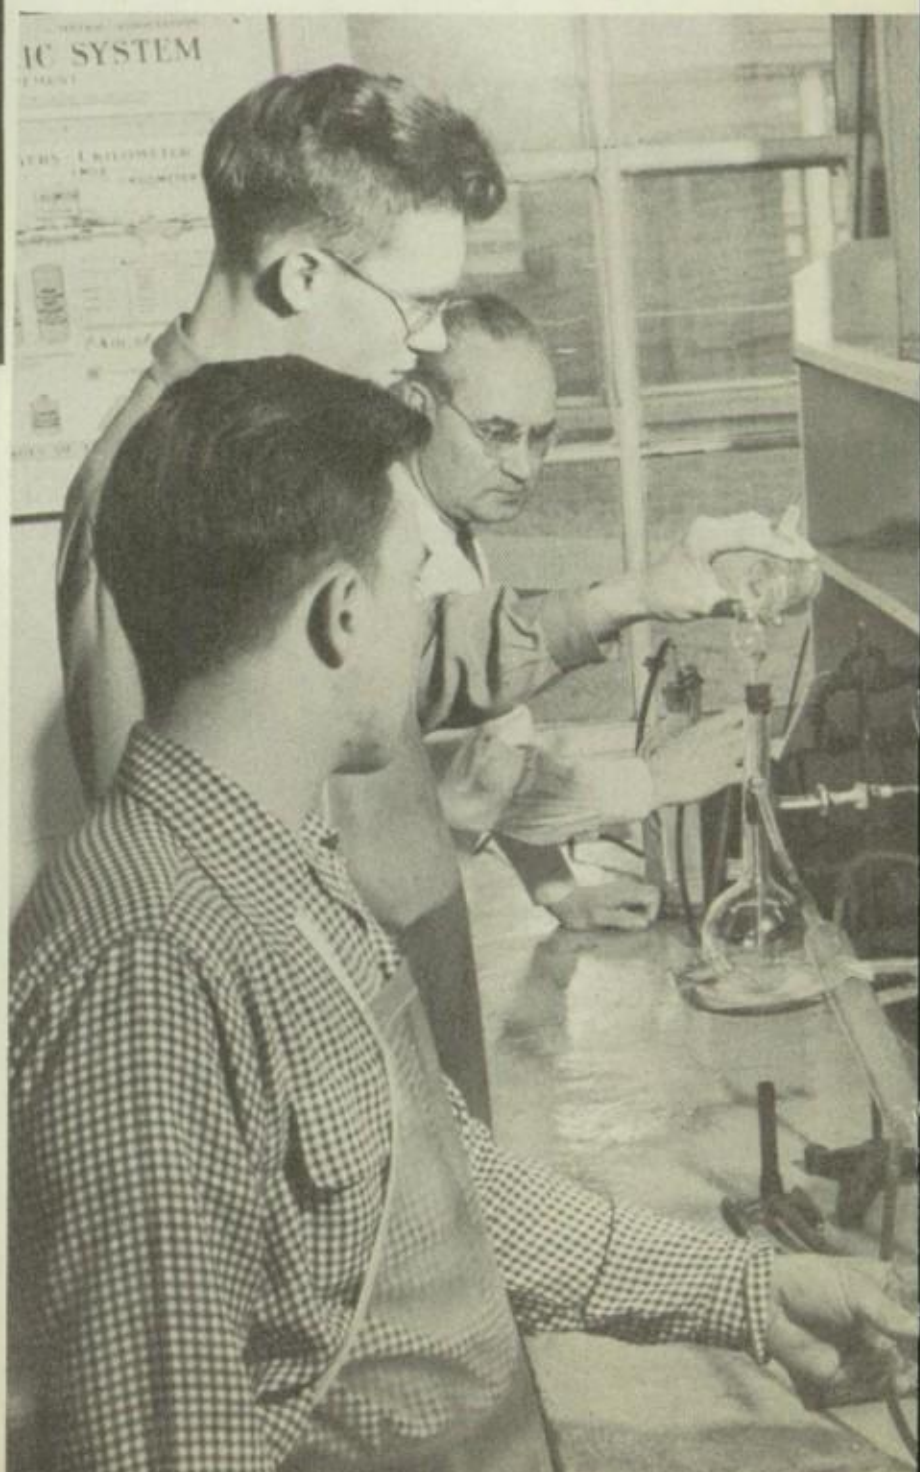

Florence Nightingale and her helpers presented a chapel program on nursing as a profession. These young ladies are in training at the Hinsdale Sanitarium, at Hinsdale, Illinois. Many girls visited these nurses in the dormitory and learned first-hand what it is like to be a nurse.

Jim Marsa and Donald Halenz work on an experiment as Mr. Mayor observes from the other side of the counter.

Temperance

The Student Association sponsored a temperance program in chapel on March 19. Milly Edmister gave her prize-winning oration and Mr. Mayor conducted an experiment showing the effects of smoking. The Association is mailing the magazine LISTEN to a large list of local business men.

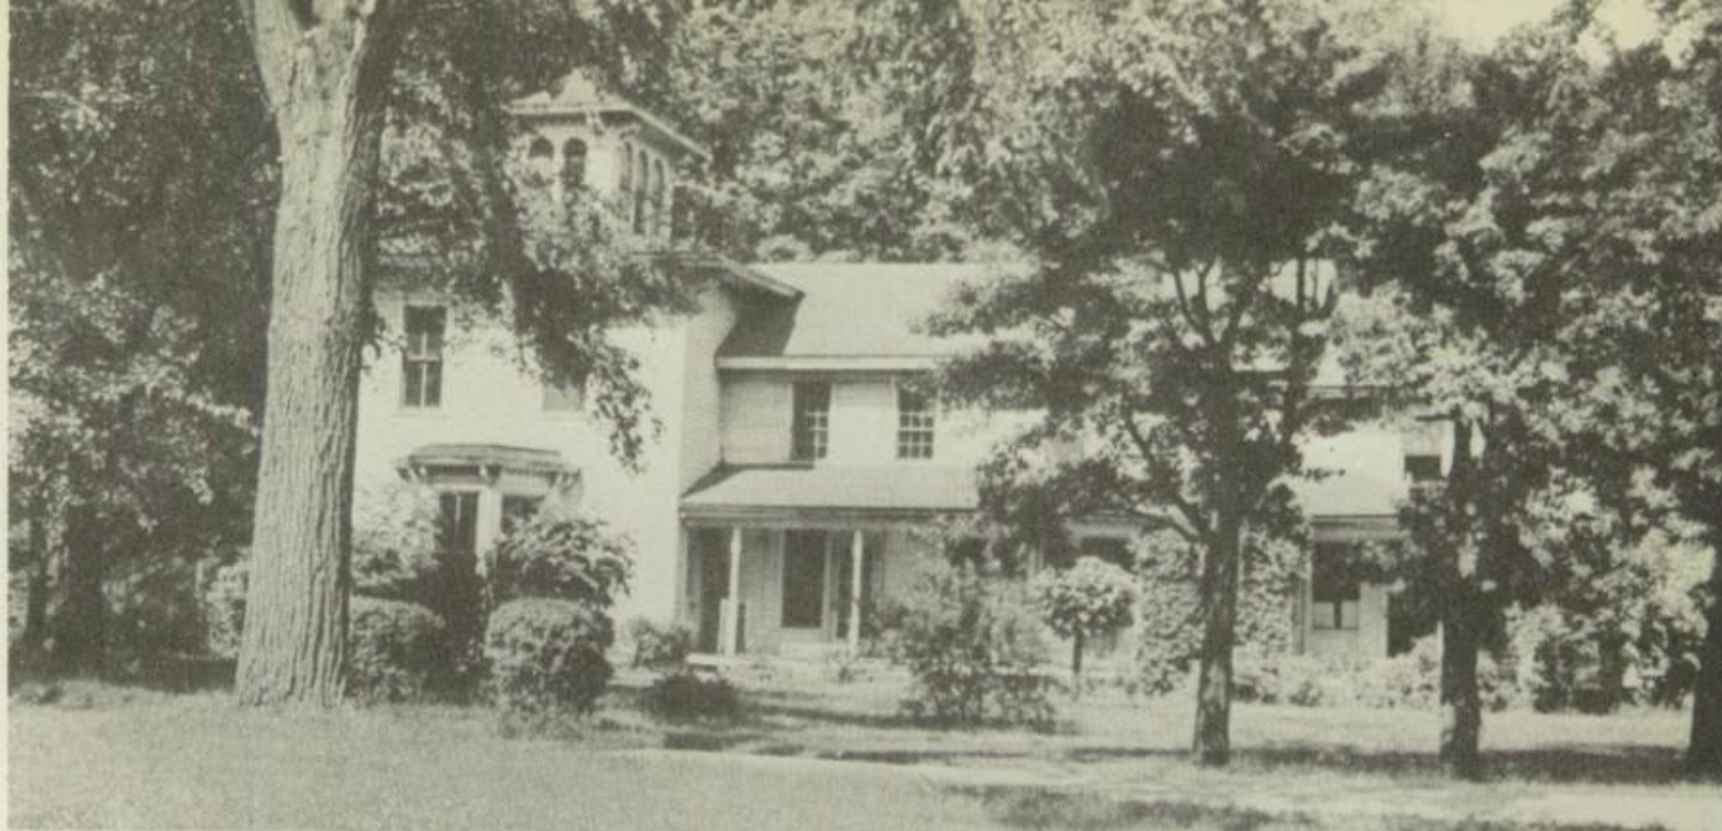

Miss Swedberg directs the activities of the Girls' Glee Club. This group, under her able direction, has given many special numbers during the year.

The "Cantorale Choristers" are shown in their new robes. The rich purple gown is dramatically set off by gold sleeves and dickies. In addition to presenting a program at Emmanuel Missionary College, this group will give eight major concerts before the close of the school year.

A faithful landmark which is no more Lady Lamson. This picture will bring fond memories to many girls who learned to call this place "home." It has been torn down to make way for more modern improvements on our campus.

Teachers of Tomorrow

Dick Bagg, Elder W. A. Nelson, Lake Union Educational Secretary, Gordon Engen, sponsor, observe Elder H. R. Nelson, Michigan Educational Secretary, presenting a T. O. T. pin to Marva Shugars, president of the local chapter.

Sabbath School

Dave Kuebler, Jerry Lewison, Mr. and Mrs. Engen sponsors, Joyce Letson, Betty Crosby, Milly Edmister and Kenneth Burt were active leaders of the Sabbath School for the second semester.

Essential New Gift Books for Young People

FROM FOOTBALL FIELD TO MISSION FIELD, by R. A. Hayden.

Here is a story packed with all those appeals that touch life's deepest emotions. The author's conversion from a life of self-sacrificing service among the Indians with Elder Stahl stirs the heart and challenges the reader's interest from the very first page. This book is an outstanding contribution to our missionary literature.

Looking east toward the front entrance to the Administration Building. The pergola (product of Adelphian Mill) shaded by a lovely Silver Birch, invites one to rest a bit and enjoy the beautiful campus.

Dear Jim -
I will always remember how you
teased me and tormented
me. Also for all the nice times
you had here at Adelphi.
You do, and I want the good food
Bless and keep you,
A friend
